Xiaowen, I will need u to grant me access... [redacted] has given access but you blocked it. Given that u have resigned from the role, hoarding the info will warrant you termination or dismissal (if with cause) as it is insubordination... So please grant me access by 9pm today and inform me when you do. Thank you.
19:38
Hi Sylvia, sorry for the late reply. I am on leave and was dealing with personal matters. I am not withholding the information from you. I want to do a formal handover with everything captured in writing and above board. I do not want to do it over WhatsApp, as I do not want to get in trouble with the company after I have left. I hope you understand my position. Can we set an appointment to do the formal handover?
19:55
Yes but [redacted] has granted access on what grounds did you block it?
19:57
Do let me have the access then we will do the rest tmr? Do u have a timing on mind?
19:58
[redacted] told me that I need to give access to someone called [redacted] but he is not an employee of the company. Thus I got worried about this. I knew there is some internal dispute. I am just trying to protect myself and make sure everything is above board.
